

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, March 18, 1901

Volta Bureau, 35th & “ Q Sts. March 18, 1901. Dear Mabel: —

I have just returned from Virginia Beach with Elsie and Bert, and feel very much better. I have been longing and longing for a breath of sea air, and have come back quite set up again. This afternoon I am in luck — two letters from you, one March 5 and the other March 7. (INTERRUPTED)

Elsie and Bert went to their new house, 1720, 21st Street, this morning

(INTERRUPTED).

Good bye, Your loving Alec.
